LEM W. BOWEN, President
D. M. FERRY, JR., Vice-President
DWIGHT BUTLER, Vice-President
J. S. HEATON, Vice-President & Treasurer
J. H. THOM, Vice-President

INCORPORATED 1884

KENNEDY R. OWEN, Vice-President
CHARLES C. BOWEN, Secretary
EMERSON J. SCHOFIELD, Ass't Secretary
PAUL M. BOWEN, Ass't Secretary
F. S. BROWN, Ass't Secretary

Standard Accident Insurance Company

OF DETROIT, MICHIGAN

COLLIER & HARDWICKE, AGENTS
JAS. W. SHARP, JR. MGR. INS. DEPT.
PHONE MADISON 337
600 TRAVELERS BUILDING
RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

June 26th. 1926.

Mr. J. C. Collier,
Barnesville, Ga.

My dear Mr. Collier:

Enclosed I hand you letter from a cousin, which explains itself. The hand writing is not very clear, but probably with some study you can make out the questions asked, and can no doubt furnish the information desired. I am answering this letter stating you wish copies of all information available, and trust she will have copies made for you.

I understand from Mr. Stephens you expect to be in Richmond some time during July. I hope I will be here at that time, and may have the pleasure of meeting you. As I think I have previously written you, I have sold my interest in this firm, and at present do not know just where I will be located, or how soon I will leave this office. However, I will keep this office posted as to my address, and you will be able to get in touch with me through this source.

With kindest personal regards, I remain,

Yours very truly,

C. H. Collier

C. H. Collier.

CHC/LP.